

Succession Planning & Talent Management

After the success of the first day of this training course, we are delighted to invite NQTs plus one who were unable to attend the first day, to have the opportunity to take part in the programme. We are therefore repeating day one on 26th February.

If you attended the previous session on 13th November, please note you are already booked on the second day on 12th March, so no need to re book.

Learning to Lead 2 Day Training Programme for Primary NQT's +1

26th February 2014 and 12th March 2014

Holiday Inn, Brentwood, Essex

9.30am-3.00pm

This course will be led by
Mark Jones Head Teacher
from Belmont Castle Academy.

For
Primary Teachers in their second year of teaching

Aims of the CPD:

- Understand the differences between leadership and management when learning to lead
- How to successfully manage people to get the best from them
- Using data to inform targeted action planning
 - Exploring what should be reported to governors, when and how
- Making effective use of resources to drive achievement

This is a 2 day course comprising of morning group session and afternoon workshops

Delegates are required to bring anything they have already begun as an action plan for their subject or phase

To book a place please

Email: curriculum.services@thurrock.gov.uk

Course Code PS/498

Comments from previous session

“Very informative and relevant - brilliant!”

“Small and friendly group, discussing things relevant to our roles within school.”

“Given chance to speak to new leaders which was very useful Great to get a memory stick with proformas, templates, info, including completed examples on different areas within subjects e.g. budget / role of governors etc.”

“Very worthwhile training course to attend.”